

BENJAMÍN HIDALGO MATLOCK MD

Specialist in Dermatology (University of Costa Rica

Attending Dermatologist at Hospital México (2004-2018)

Attending Dermatologist of the Dermatology Service of the National Children's Hospital (2019-currently).

Licensed Undergraduate Pediatrics Instructor at the University of Costa Rica and Professor of Undergraduate Dermatology at the Universidad Latina de Costa Rica, as well as Instructor at the Postgraduate Degree in Pediatrics and Dermatology at the University of Costa Rica (National Subcoordinator).

CONIS Costa Rica accredited Interventional Researcher.

International Fellow: American Association of Dermatology, European Academy of Dermatology, Society of Investigative Dermatology, American Society of Pediatric Dermatology, Cutaneous Lymphoma Society, American Academy of Surgical Dermatology, International Society of Pediatric Dermatology, International Society of Dermatoscopy. President Costa Rican Association of Dermatology of Costa Rica. Member of the Central American Society of Dermatology Member of GRAPPA, Global Psoriasis Atlas Country Representative. Member of Solapso.

Areas of interest: Cutaneous Immunology, Dermatoscopy, Skin Cancer, Photobiology, Pruritus.

15 articles published in international and national magazines.